Morning prayer Sunday 2nd Feb 25

Music - Bloch; from Jewish Life B53-1. Prayer.

Psalm 145: 1-9

There are more of us than Jesus first invited to follow him. World revolution began in a small area of the world, with small number of men and women. Most were ordinary, not of high standing or influence, but they loved, followed and believed. Their lives were turned upside down...and changed for ever by the invitation to follow and believe in Jesus as Messiah, Lord and God. They were considered strange. They were misunderstood. Their belief in Jesus was seen as a threat, and a joke. They were attacked. They had to move away from home. But.....they believed this Jesus was the Way, was the Truth, was the Life - and that changed everything. Once believed in, they could not turn back ...and some died for holding on to that belief. That is why we are here.....because of God's revelation which is fresh and true for every generation....and because of Christian people who have passed on the faith generation to generation. I am in the long line of believers which begins with Andrew and Peter, Mary and Martha, James and John, Joanna and Susanna, Paul and Barnabas, Priscilla and Aquilla, Timothy and Silas....down to my parents who also believed and shared the faith with me.

Sisters in Christ...we are called to pass on this faith to the next generations. Remember...we are part of a world revolution, and you are part of the revolution here in Denmark. We believe in the King...we believe in his kingdom.
